

OHSA INAUGURAL WORLD SHOW JUDGE SADDLE SEAT AND GAITED

Michael Morgan-Lynch

Michael Morgan-Lynch got his start in gaited horses at the age of 10 by walking 4.5 miles each Saturday to Dalton Holland's barn of beautiful Walking and Racking horses. In exchange for a riding lesson on his Racking mare, Michael mucked stalls and did whatever needed to be done in order to ride. He rode Holland's stallion Liberty's Chairman of the Board or "Jacob" to his first Wolds Championship at the Racking horse Celebration in Decatur, AL. at the age of 14.

After moving to California, Michael owned and Exhibited several High point Tennessee Walking Horses: All The Money -Regional High point Halter Mare, An Heir About Him international 3 Gait Grand Champion Walking Horse, Silver Maple Shimmy- ASHA Regional High Point Model Champion Saddlebred Mare and multiple Champion Road Hackney Pony Northland Summer Storm.

Michael have been an active horse show judge for 22 years and shows no intention of slowing down! When away from horses, he's an active dog show judge of herding and terriers. He actively breeds and shows Lakeland terriers. He has judged in the states and internationally.

"Hard work and preparation is really the secret of landing on the tops of my cards. There's no substitute for it. Put in the effort and it will show!" Says Morgan-Lynch.
